The mission of the Southern University Agricultural Research and Extension Center; in its land-grant role, is to conduct statewide basic and applied research and to disseminate information to the citizens of Louisiana in a manner that is useful in addressing their scientific, technological, social, economic and cultural needs. The Center advances the state of knowledge through its research program. Through its extension program, it disseminates relevant information that addresses the scientific, technological, social, economic and cultural needs of all citizens, emphasizing particularly the needs of those who are socially, economically, and educationally disadvantaged. Cooperation with federal agencies and other state and local agencies, in accordance with various acts of Congress, ensures that the overall needs of citizens of Louisiana are met by the effective and efficient use of the resources provided to the Center through state and federal appropriations.

Southern University Agricultural Research and Extension Center (SUAREC) does not have academic programs and so, does not enroll students. Participation in student academic, research and other activities are conducted through Southern University at Baton Rouge (SUBR). SUAREC provides support programs, services, and activities consistent with its mission that promote student learning and enhance the development of its research and extension.
