

Theron Jackson

Theron Jackson, Special Assistant to the Chancellor for Institutional Advancement and Director of University Relations for Southern University at Shreveport, Louisiana (SUSLA), currently serves as Pastor of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Greenwood, LA. Jackson is the former President of the 13th District Baptist Association's Congress of Christian Education.

He is currently serving as Vice Moderator of the 13th District Baptist Association. Jackson has initiated numerous ministries to minister to health, education, and financial welfare of the Community. Jackson has been the featured speaker for churches, graduations, corporate meetings, government agency meetings, law enforcement training conferences, women's conferences, college and university events, and military base events. In 1998 at age 29, Jackson made an impressive run for the office of Mayor in the city of Shreveport, capturing nearly 20% of the vote as a political newcomer.

In November of 1998, Jackson was recognized by Ebony magazine as one of the nation's top 30 leaders under 30. On October 5, 2002 Jackson was elected to the Shreveport City Council as the Representative for District "G". As councilman, Jackson created the City of Shreveport's Youth City Council and in the summer of 2006 Jackson created 100 jobs for young people in the city of Shreveport. Jackson has also recently completed a term as a member of the board of directors of the National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials.