

About Our Keynote Speaker

Jeff LeDuff achieved his lifelong dream when he was named Chief of Police on February 24, 2005.

LeDuff joined the Baton Rouge Police Department in July of 1983 and spent the majority of his career on a motorcycle. Along the way he received numerous commendations, including a Life Saving medal, and was named Police Officer of the Year in 1992. In September 2001, he was promoted to Sergeant.

He attended the 176th session of the FBI National Academy in 1994 and became the first attendee from Louisiana to be elected President of his class.

Throughout his career, LeDuff obtained instructor certifications in a number of police specialties and devoted more time to training police officers throughout south Louisiana in topics such as defensive tactics, tactical driving and racial diversity. LeDuff eventually left motorcycles to become the head instructor at the Training Academy in November 2002.

LeDuff is a graduate of Port Allen High School and attended Northeastern Louisiana University and the University of Southwestern Louisiana. He and his wife Kasandra have a son, Kelly.
