LIVESTOCK SHOW PURPOSE

The Livestock Show was established by J.W. Fisher, director of the College of Agriculture and Tom J. Jordan, state cooperative extension agent, along with a group of statewide vocational agricultural teachers, agricultural extension workers, and community leaders.

The show began as a poultry show. A dairy calf project was added in the second year. That same year, the name was changed to the State Poultry and Dairy Show. The exhibitors were youth from limited-resource families.

OBJECTIVE:

The objective of the youth livestock program is to develop responsibility, dedication, decision-making, leadership, trustworthiness, sportsmanship and citizenship through the possession and personal care of a live animal project. The youth (4-H or FFA members) will have many educational opportunities and activities to learn about animal husbandry and develop life skills. We are striving for maximum contact with the animal and participation in educational activities.

PURPOSE:

- ✓ Stimulate a greater interest in increasing the production of livestock among farmers in Louisiana;
- ✓ Serve as a basis for improving breeding practices for livestock;
- ✓ Create an interest in producing livestock products as business enterprises;
- ✓ Assist in developing a better spirit of cooperative effort among rural and urban residents; and
- ✓ Provide an opportunity for youth to develop ownership and leadership skills.

Over the years, the program has made a positive impact on the state and its citizens, recruited students to Southern University, and developed professional agriculture and home economics workers, community leaders, entrepreneurs, and politicians. The show has contributed enormously to the total agricultural industry and economy of the state of Louisiana.

The Southern University Ag Center Livestock Show remains the premier event for displaying youth showmanship and quality animals. The Livestock Show and related programs teach leadership skills, character development, and entrepreneurship skills to the youth who prepare year-round for competitions.

General Rules and Regulations

Code of Ethics

Color Conformation and Structure

The Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show reserves the right to disqualify any animal that has been fitted in an unethical manner or is ineligible due to age for exhibition in the class entered. Unethical fitting is defined as any practices that alter the natural conformation or color of any part of the animal's body.

It includes:

- Injection of a gas, solid or liquid under the skin to alter normal conformation.
- Surgery, including cutting or tearing, of the hide or subcutaneous tissue in an attempt to alter the natural contour, shape or appearance of the animal's body, hide or hair.
- Attempting to disrupt or change normal dental development.
- Dyeing or coloring an animal to alter its natural color or to cause it to be classified in a different breed or show class.
- Grooming materials that disguise or alter the conformation and condition of an animal will NOT be allowed. This shall include the use of black mortar, graphite, and/or similar materials. (This rule shall not prohibit the removal of warts, teats, or horns; clipping or dressing of hair; trimming of hooves; or other recommended management practices.)

Every exhibitor's consideration of his entry being accepted by the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show, agrees to submit any animal entered to inspection by a veterinarian appointed by the Southern University Ag Center Livestock Program Manager and agrees to have the animal submitted to any tests designated and requested by the veterinarian. The exhibitor further agrees that the decision of the appointed veterinarian, as to whether the animal is unethically fitted or of improper age for the class entered, shall be final and conclusive, without recourse against the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show or any of its staff. Animals judged to have been unethically fitted or of ineligible age of class entered will be disqualified by the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show Management. In any case, where premiums have been awarded to an animal found to be in violation of this rule, the exhibitor will refund all premiums, monies, cups, trophies, and ribbons awarded.

Interpretations, Amendments and Violations

1. The Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show Management reserves the final and absolute right to interpret all rules and regulations, and arbitrarily settle all questions in regard to, connected with or incident to the show.
2. The Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show Management reserves the right to amend or add to all rules and regulations, as it may deem advisable. In the event of a conflict of general rules, the latter will govern.
3. Any person who violates any of the following or special rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and will be subject to such penalties as the management may order.

4. No side sales of show animals will be allowed on show grounds. All sales will be handled by the Manager. Any agents, vocational agriculture teacher or leader who is caught selling culled animals on the side will forfeit his/her premium money for the parish.
5. The Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show is open to any Louisiana 4-H, or FFA member, or any other youth interested in exhibiting, regardless of sex, race, color or national origin. Any Southern University employee including all Southern University Ag Center employees' children who meet the requirements of the sections are eligible and welcome to show at the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show.
6. A Junior Exhibitor, when used in these regulations, is defined as follows: Any youth age 7-19, who is a registered, affiliated member of a 4-H club, or FFA in the state of Louisiana and other interested youth.
18-19 year-old exhibitors must be in a university setting to exhibit as a freshman in college.
7. No animal, under any circumstances, may be offered for sale in the junior sale at the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show if the animal has not been entered to sell with the entry and/or weigh-in committee upon arrival at the State Show.
8. No alcoholic beverages will be permitted or consumed on the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show premises.
9. All complaints or allegations of misconduct by one member against another member must go before the Executive Show Council Committee with a $175.00 deposit. If the complaint is upheld by the Executive Council Committee, then the deposit will be returned. If the complaint is not upheld, the deposit will be used to help defray expenses in operating the Show. All protests or complaints must be made in writing, stating specific charges, all facts associated with the problem, witnesses, etc.
10. It is the supervising agricultural workers' or designated leaders' responsibility to assure that participating (youth) exhibitors show animals in their appropriate classes.

11. All prospective entries must be filed with the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show Office by the specific dates on page 14 of the SU Ag Center State Livestock Show handbook. The management of the show reserves the right to reject any entry sent after the designated date. Each junior entry must be signed by an authorized county agent; or vocational agriculture teacher. All entry forms must be submitted on the forms provided by the SU Ag Center Livestock Program Office or posted on the Southern University Ag Center's website. Each entry form must be accompanied by a signed W-9 form.

Note: Entries will not be accepted without a completed W-9 and Cashier's Check or Money Order for Entry Fees.

12. The person in charge of registration reserves the right to reassign and to reclassify any entry that is not properly entered.
13. Certificates of health must be presented at registration for all animals. This is a requirement of the Office of Animal Health Services at the Louisiana Department of Ag and Forestry.
14. A copy of registration papers for registered animals, and/or ownership certificates of birth are expected to accompany entry forms.
15. Every bull must have a ring in its nose, or nose leads, and is under control.
16. Commercial heifers will be weighed and classified at the show on Thursday.
17. A premium will not be awarded when the animal is unworthy. A premium will not be awarded in any division except as defined in the premium list.
18. Final acceptance of animals for participation will be determined by a screening committee at the Southern University Ag Center.

Duties and Privileges for Agricultural Workers, Leaders, Parents, and Exhibitors

1. No one will interfere with judging. The judge's decision will be final.
2. All market steers, market hogs, goats, and lambs must be weighed by the superintendent committee. Each exhibitor is responsible for having his animal weighed and entered into the judging and sale ring.
3. No agent, exhibitor, parent, or leader will interfere with the judge or his assistants while the judging is being held.

Liability of Exhibitors

1. A local veterinarian is listed in the telephone directory for service. However, the owner of the animal is expected to assume the financial responsibility of this service.
2. Persons exhibiting livestock will do so at their own risk. In no case will the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show, the manager, any official or employee, be held responsible for any loss, damage, or death by disease or otherwise of any person. Nor will the State Show be held responsible for loss, damage, or death to persons, property or exhibits while en route to, from, or while on the exhibit grounds.

For additional information on each animal division, see appropriate classes.

Showmanship

1. The exhibitor must be the sole owner of the animal to compete for showmanship awards.
2. No exhibitor will be permitted to have assistance in handling his animal during the showmanship contest.
3. The exhibitor can opt to move up one age group; however, the exhibitor is not allowed to move down.
4. No Prospect animals can be exhibited for showmanship.

4-H AND FFA PROJECTS HARDSHIP POLICY AND GUIDELINES

HARDSHIP POLICY:

The ability of the youth to provide personal care for the animal is a major goal in livestock projects. The guiding concern in granting permission for hardship requests should be the education and development of youth. Concern for ensuring that the animal shown has minimal importance in granting hardships. Any exhibitor housing his or her animal on any property other than their own must acquire and have approved a project/hardship form prior to the purchase of the animal.

GUIDELINES FOR GRANTING HARDSHIPS:

CATEGORY I - POSSESSION OF ANIMALS

- A. The animal should be housed within a reasonable distance to allow youth to interact with the animal project on a positive basis.
- B. Youth (4-H or FFA members) should do the majority of work and care for the animal project.
- C. All housing requests must be made prior to the possession date.
 - a. Residential restrictions will be considered.
 - b. Opportunities for housing will be considered.
- D. An animal housed across parish lines must be recommended by both an Agent and/or FFA Advisor.

CATEGORY II - REPLACEMENT OF INJURED OR DECEASED ANIMALS

- A. Injured animals must be checked and verified by the 4-H Agent and/or FFA Advisor or veterinarian.
- B. The replacement animals should be of comparable quality. Replacement of animals will be considered only to those exhibitors with one animal project per species.
- C. Replacement animals must be obtained within a reasonable amount of time to be determined by the Livestock Show Manager.

CATEGORY III - CONFLICTS WITH SHOW AND EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Exhibitors must show their own animals. Exceptions will be made only in the following cases listed below and with proper approval. In all cases, when the exhibitor cannot show his/her own animal, the exhibitor must have a bona fide 4-H or FFA member to show in his/her place. If the animal qualifies for the championship classes and the exhibitor is unable to show the animal, the same individual exhibiting in class must show the animal in the championship class.

1. Exceptions:
 - a. Exhibitor's animals will be allowed to show in class and in the championship drive only if the exhibitor cannot show due to illness, physical handicap, personal injury or death in the family.
 - b. The Livestock Show Manager shall approve or disapprove these requests.
 - c. Academic conflicts (school tests, academic contests, ACT, etc.) will be considered. The Livestock Show Manager shall approve or disapprove these requests.
 - d. To obtain an exception for school conflicts and physical handicaps, the exhibitor must file a Livestock Project Possession/Hardship Form and have proper approval prior to the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show.

HARDSHIP PROCEDURE:

Youth and/or parent(s) must fill out the hardship form and include all pertinent information. The form must be signed by the youth, parent and/or guardian, Agent/FFA Advisor, and Parish Chair/School Principal (when it pertains to a school-related function or activity). THE SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY AG CENTER STATE LIVESTOCK SHOW MANAGER RESERVES THE RIGHT FOR FINAL APPROVAL ON ALL HARDSHIPS AND MAY MAKE EXCEPTIONS TO THE ABOVE GUIDELINES BASED ON EACH SITUATION.

The 4-H and FFA Project Hardship/Possession Form can be found in the Appendix on page 42.

Sale of Animals

If a steer, market hog, market goat or market lamb is sold at the parish show, but attends the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show, at which it is declared Grand Champion or Reserve Grand Champion, it must be offered for sale at the Livestock Auction. Should a parish champion be offered for sale at a parish show, but will attend the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show, it must be announced at the parish show, and the purchaser advised, that in the event there are no bids at the State Show above the price offered at the parish show sale, the animal will then become the property of the person making the purchase at the parish show. Otherwise, it becomes the property of the person making the purchase at the State Show.

No animal, under any circumstances, can be offered for sale in the Auction at the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show if the animal has not been properly entered in the superintendent's official judging record and/or with the weighing committee upon arrival at the State Show.

If an animal is injured during the State Show, and in the opinion of the superintendent should not be offered for sale at the Auction, it will be offered for sale immediately following the Auction with a full explanation of injuries given by the superintendent.

Breeding animals are permitted to compete in the swine, sheep, and goat market classes. If any of these animals are made champion of the show, they become the sole property of the purchaser. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Champion and Reserve Champion animals will be selected at the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show in each division from the first and second place winners in each weight or age classification. If any animal has been named Grand Champion in a class, then the second place animal in that class should be brought out with the other first-place winners to determine the Reserve Champion.

Animals that are uncontrollable must be removed from the premises immediately. Uncontrollable animals that do not show will be eliminated from selling at the Auction (at the discretion of management).

All steers exhibited will not weigh less than 800 lbs. There will be no maximum weight limit for showing market steers. The sale weight for all steers will not exceed 1,300 lbs. A three percent (3%) shrinkage will be deducted from sale weight. All market lambs have a minimum weight of 85 lbs. and a maximum weight of 140 lbs. Market goats should be a minimum weight of 55lbs. and a maximum weight of 135 lbs. Market pigs have a minimum weight of 208 lbs. and a maximum weight of 285 lbs. A 1% tolerance on weight will be given at the scale only. Market animals offered for sale in the auction must be accompanied by the owner in the sale ring.

Ear Tags

Ear tags for market animals will be supplied by the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Program Office and must remain on the market steers, market lambs, market goats and market hogs until after the Show. It is important that the designated tags assigned to each division be used as instructed by the Director of the Show.

Within thirty (30) days after receiving entry forms, you will be visited or supplied with tags from the staff of the Southern University Ag Center Livestock Program Office.

Tags for market animals will be supplied by the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Program's Office and animals must be tagged prior to January 27, 2022.

AUCTION SALE RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. No animal can be offered for sale in the Junior Auction at the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show if the animal has not been properly entered into the superintendent's official judging book.
2. No side sale of under/overweight and culled animals is permitted at the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show.
3. Any animal pulled out from the sale will not be reconsidered for sale after the auction.
4. Parishes, organizations, parents, and exhibitors will be required to support and sell 50% of their animals. For example, if parishes have ten (10) market animals to be sold at the show, the parish must have support for five (5) of those animals.
5. No tack- on money will be accepted after the animal has been sold. All support must be used at the ringside.
6. All support money must be used for an animal(s) in the auction ONLY. Animal(s) not going through the auction cannot receive support money through the Southern University Ag Center State Livestock Show.
7. Any animal(s) purchased during the auction for consumption or pick up must be purchased before the animal can leave the premises or have prior approval from the Show Manager.
8. Exhibitor's intent to sell or not to sell at the auction must be noted on the weight card prior to being weighed.
9. Resale animals that are not in the official sale book will be sold at the resale price. If an animal is bid on at the auction above the resale price, the individual or business is responsible for the difference between the resale price and the actual price of the animal.
10. Market animals can be deleted from the sale catalog prior to 7:00 P.M. Friday night but not after 7:00 P.M. Friday.
11. No animal will be permitted to be added to the sale order. The show will deliver animals purchased at the auction to the Processing Plant.
12. If a market animal is a champion, it becomes the show's property and must be sold in the champion sale.

Night with the Stars

Old Fashion Livestock Decorating Contest

February 25, 2022

6:00 P.M.

No Entry Fee

The Livestock Decorating Contest of the Southern University State Livestock Show is a costume class for the goat, lamb, dairy and beef animals as well as the exhibitors. The contest will be held during the Southern University Ag Center's 78th Annual State Livestock Show on Friday, February 25, 2022. The following standards will be used for judging:

- a. Theme promoting A Night with the Stars-35%
- b. Costumes of both the exhibitor and the animal-35%
- c. Cleverness and originality of costume to theme-20%
- d. Neatness and control of the animal-10%

Entries are open to youth exhibiting hogs, goat, lamb, dairy and beef at the show (with parents' assistance if needed.) Animals used in the contest will be shown in one of the regular class shows. More than one animal or exhibitor can constitute an entry in the contest. The purpose of this contest is to add a little fun to the hard work of showing quality animals and to spotlight and promote the perspective industry.

AWARDS - 1st place $100.00 Overall Winner

Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification

Give form to the requester. Do not send to the IRS.

Print or type See Specific Instructions on page 2.	Name (as shown on your income tax return)
	Business name, if different from above
	Check appropriate box: <input type="checkbox"/> Individual/Sole proprietor <input type="checkbox"/> Corporation <input type="checkbox"/> Partnership <input type="checkbox"/> Limited liability company. Enter the tax classification (D=disregarded entity, C=corporation, P=partnership) ▶ <input type="checkbox"/> Exempt payee <input type="checkbox"/> Other (see instructions) ▶
	Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.)	Requester's name and address (optional)
	City, state, and ZIP code
	List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Social security number or
Employer identification number

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
